

The American Volkssport Association National Executive Council XVIII is pleased to announce the appointment of Stephanie Sánchez Sinclair as its national executive director effective January 27, 2014. The selection was approved by the National Executive Council during its meeting held January 10-11, 2014 in Tucson, Arizona.

For more than a decade, Sinclair has worked in community relations, communications, and fund development roles for major nonprofits and corporations in San Antonio, Texas. In senior nonprofit management positions, Sinclair has implemented individual donor campaigns, grants, special events, alumni relations, advocacy, social media, public relations, general operations, board development, and has extensive experience working with volunteer-driven organizations.

“I have wonderful memories of volkssporting adventures with my mother and grandmother as we frequently participated in events across South Texas during the late 1990’s. It is a privilege to be selected to work with the National Executive Council and AVA national headquarters staff to promote our mission to provide fun, fitness, and friendship across the country,” says Sinclair.

Sinclair holds a Master of Science in Nonprofit Management from Our Lady of the Lake University, along with a Master of Arts in Communication Studies and a bachelor’s degree in English-Communication Arts from St. Mary’s University in San Antonio, Texas. Sinclair is a graduate of Leadership San Antonio, Class XXXV, and was selected as the Girl Scouts of Southwest Texas 2012 Best of the Best staff excellence recipient. She resides in San Antonio, Texas with her husband and daughter.
